

Dead Theologians Society

Are you aged 18-35?

Are you interested in learning more about your Catholic Faith?

Would you like to meet for food, friendship, storytelling and prayer?

If yes, then the Dead Theologians Society (DTS) could be for you.

This new and exciting initiative supported by St Patrick's Parish gives you the opportunity to enrich your understanding of the Catholic Faith and draw inspiration from the lives of the saints.

During Lent, we will gather in St Patrick's Old Schoolhouse on Sunday evenings at 8pm (just after the Candlelit Mass) and conclude around 9.30pm.

Participants will get a DTS hoodie, Rosary and join the worldwide network of members learning from the lives of the saints.

Why not make this Lent a season to remember!
